

ABC

"RONDA HOSTS THE WORLD PREMIERE OF "LE BAL DES DEBUTANTS"

The town of Ronda, Malaga will today welcome at the Teatro Municipal Vicente Espinel, the world premiere of "Le Bal des Débutants", written by the forerunner of the "French nouvelle danse" Dominique Dupuy.

ABC – Saturday, November 17, 2001 E.P. - Malaga

This is a piece with an original musical composition created by various composers, 35 minutes of duration and fourteen interpreters on stage.

Moreover, the work will be registered as created in Malaga and co-produced by Festival Danza Malaga.

This premiere is part of the II International Dance Meeting organized by the Provincial Delegation of Malaga with the Centre of Contemporary Dance in Angers and the Alliance Française.

During the early days of this month have been developed, choreographies and performances in various points of the city, and will be from 19 to 24 November when these activities have as a referent the Provincial Cultural Centre.

Altogether there will be ten works, each lasting seven to fifteen minutes, created by Argentine, French, Belgian and Russian, among other choreographers...